Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 8, 2-5 and 7 are allowed.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

[Claims 4 and 8]: The prior art fails to teach or suggest "... outputting character information to a monitor including a screen, wherein the character information is indicative of which of the filters is positioned in front of the image pick-up element in the step of selectively positioning; and displaying the character information, together with the image or another image shot by the camera, on the screen" in combination with other claimed limitations.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following prior art shows the current state of the art to this patent application:

i. Hasegawa et al. (US Patent # 6,219,180) discloses an optical unit switching apparatus (figure 4) in which display portions 28a-28d are exposed through apertures 27a-27g so that the type of the filter is can be recognized (col. 2 lines 17-34, figure 4). However it is noted that Hasegawa does not disclose outputting character information to a monitor including a screen, wherein the character information is indicative of which of the filters is positioned in front of the image pick-up element in the step of selectively positioning; and displaying the character information, together with the image or another image shot by the camera, on the screen.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
